THE COACHES

MIKE TOMLIN was named the 16th head coach in Pittsburgh Steelers history on Jan. 22, 2007. Hired at the age of 34, Tomlin became only the third head coach hired by the Steelers since 1969.

Tomlin became the youngest head coach in NFL history to both coach in and win a Super Bowl when he led the Steelers to a 27-23 victory over the Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII. By winning the Super Bowl in only his second season as a head coach, he also became the fastest to win a Super Bowl title in Steelers history.

Tomlin is one of only seven coaches in league history to win a Super Bowl within his first two seasons as an NFL head coach.

Tomlin compiled a 43-21 record in the regular season during his first four years as head coach. His .672 winning percentage after four seasons tied for first in team history. By leading the Steelers to a 12-4 record in 2010, Tomlin became only the second Steelers' head coach to post winning records in each of his first four seasons.

The Steelers' offense ranked 14th in the NFL (14th passing, 11th rushing) despite playing its first four games without its starting quarterback, Ben Roethlisberger. Pittsburgh's defense ranked second in the NFL (first vs. run, 12th vs. pass) while leading the NFL with 48 quarterback sacks. The Steelers set a team record and led the NFL, allowing only 62.8 rushing yards per game.

The Steelers continued to be dominant at Heinz Field under Tomlin in 2010. Pittsburgh finished with a 5-3 home record in 2010 after finishing 7-1 (2007), 6-2 (2008) and 6-2 (2009) at home during Tomlin's first three seasons. Tomlin's 24-8 record and .750 winning percentage at home after four seasons ranks second in Steelers' history.

Tomlin was a three-year starter at wide receiver at William and Mary (1990-94) and finished his career with 101 receptions for 2,046 yards and a school-record 20 TD catches. A first-team All-Yankee Conference selection in 1994, he established a school record with a 20.2 yards-per-catch average.

Tomlin was the NFL's second-youngest head coach in 2007, and he became only the second Steelers coach in team history to win at least 10 games during his first year at the helm. The Steelers posted a 7-1 record at home in 2007 and were 5-1 in the AFC North (3-0 at home).

Tomlin became only the second Steelers head coach to win his first three games. During 2007, the Steelers became just the fifth team in NFL history to win their first four home games by at least 20 points.

The Steelers' defense was dominant under Tomlin's guidance in 2008, leading the NFL in total defense (237.2), pass defense (156.9), points per game (13.9), total yards per play (3.9), rushing yards per attempt (3.3), passing yards per attempt (4.7) and third down efficiency (31.4), and finished second in league rushing defense (80.3).

Tomlin led the Steelers to a 10-6 record in 2007, and became just the second coach in team history to post a winning record, win a division title and earn a playoff berth in his inaugural season.

JOHN HARBAUGH is in his fourth season as head coach of the Baltimore Ravens. Harbaugh guided the '08 Ravens to the AFC Championship game where they lost to the Steelers. He tied the NFL record (since 1978) for turnarounds for head coaches taking over a sub-.500 team when Baltimore earned an 11-5 regular season mark. The Ravens' 2-1 playoff record established a new league standard in this same category.

With the 13 total victories, Harbaugh set the NFL record for the most wins ever by a rookie head coach playing a rookie quarterback (Joe Flacco).

STEELERS RADIO COVERAGE

For the 13th consecutive year, WDVE-FM (102.5) and WBGG-AM (970) are carrying all Steelers games.

Additionally, Steelers games can be heard on a 47-station network spanning Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Ohio and Maryland. For the second straight year, all Steelers' games will be broadcast in Spanish on Estadio W (730 AM).

For the 17th straight season, Bill Hillgrove serves as the "Voice of the Steelers" and handles play-by-play duties for the broadcast. Joining Hillgrove for his 13th season as an expert analyst is Tunch Ilkin, the former Steelers All-Pro offensive tackle. Joining the team for his ninth season is former Steeler offensive lineman Craig Wolfley, who provides sideline analysis.

- Pittsburgh held New England to 17 points. In four games at Heinz Field this season the Steelers are yet to allow their opponents to score more than 17 points in one game (0, 13, 17, 17).

Pittsburgh Individual Notes:

Head Coach Mike Tomlin

- Became the only coach in Steelers history and in the NFL (since 1978) to open each of his first five seasons with at least six wins through the first eight games.
- Improved his record to 2-2 against the Patriots.
- Is now 49-23 overall and 28-8 at home during the regular season.
- Under Head Coach Mike Tomlin the Steelers won the first four home games of the season for the third time in five years (2009, 2007).

QB Ben Roethlisberger

- Totaled 365 passing yards, his 18th 300-yard passing game of his career and third of 2011 (364 at Ind. 9/25/11, 361 at Ariz. 10/23/11). It also was only the second time in Roethlisberger's career he has thrown for over 300 yards in back-to-back games (301, 10/29/06, at Oak; 433, 11/5/06, vs. Den).
- Completed 36 passes, the second most of his career (38, 11/5/06 vs. Denver).
- Threw the ball 50 times, the second most of his career (54, 11/5/06 vs. Denver).
- Totaled 30+ completions for the sixth time in his career and for the first time since 11/14/10 vs. New England (30-of-49).
- Improved to 22-7 as a starting quarterback in the month of October, including a 4-1 record this season.
- Is now 75-31 as a starter, becoming the second quarterback in Steelers' history (Terry Bradshaw, 111) to reach 75 career regular-season wins.
- Roethlisberger reached 75 wins in 106 starts, making him the fourth-fastest quarterback to reach 75 victories among QBs who began their careers in the Super Bowl era, trailing Pro Football Hall of Famer Roger Staubach (99), Tom Brady (99) and Ken Stabler (105).
- For the game, Roethlisberger was 9-12 on third down for 104 yards and two touchdowns.
- Completed 23-of-32 pass attempts for 231 yards, with two touchdowns and one interception for a passer rating of 99.9 in the first half.
- 23 completions on 32 attempts were both first half career highs.
- 231 passing yards tied for Roethlisberger's fifth highest passing total in the first half.
- Threw for over 200 yards in the first half for the 15th time in his career.
- Interception in the second quarter was his first in 98 attempts.
- Registered 365 passing yards against the Patriots, marking a career-best 16th straight regular-season game he has thrown for at least 200 yards through the air.

TE Heath Miller

- Led the team with 85 yards on seven receptions.
- Tied a first half career-high with six receptions and set a first half career-high with 76 yards. Miller previously registered six receptions in the first half against San Diego on 10/4/09, totaling 58 yards.
- Dating back to 1991, Miller's six receptions tied Eric Green (6 for 118 yards, 9/22/91 vs. Philadelphia) for the most receptions by a Steelers' tight end in the first half.
- Registered four receptions on the first drive of the game, accounting for 55 of the Steelers 68 total yards on the drive.

WR Antonio Brown

- Set a career-high with nine receptions for 67 yards.
- Today marked the second consecutive week where he registered a career-high after totaling seven receptions for 102 yards at Arizona.

WR Mike Wallace

- Recorded 70 yards receiving on seven receptions. Dating back to 2010, Wallace has recorded at least 70 yards receiving each of the past 13 regular-season games.

RB Mewelde Moore

- Registered a five-yard touchdown reception on the opening drive to give the Steelers a 7-0 lead.
- For the game recorded two receptions for 24 yards and one run for 16 yards.

WR Emmanuel Sanders

- Totaled 70 yards and five receptions with a long of 26 yards
- Marked the second highest receiving yardage total of his career (78, vs. NYJ, 12/19/10).

WR Hines Ward

- Because of an ankle injury was declared inactive for the first time since 12/30/07, at Baltimore, breaking a streak of 55 consecutive games played during the regular season.

LB LaMarr Woodley

- Recorded 2.0 sacks versus New England. Including the postseason. It marked the 12th time in the past 15 games he registered at least a half a sack, totaling 15.5 sacks during the span.
- It was the 16th regular season game of his career with at least 1.5 sacks. It marked the first time since sacks became an official statistic in 1982 that a Steelers' player registered at least 1.5 sacks in four consecutive regular season games. The last player in the NFL with more than one sack in four straight games was Simeon Rice in 2002 (five straight).

DE Brett Keisel

- With 19 seconds left in the game forced a fumble on a sack of QB Tom Brady that rolled out of the back of the end zone for a safety, giving the Steelers a 25-17 lead.
- Marked third sack in the last three games.

LB Stevenson Sylvester

- Made first career start in place injured LB James Farrior.

LB James Farrior

- Due to a calf injury was declared inactive for the first time since 11/20/05, at Baltimore. Broke streak of 93 consecutive regular season games started.

LOOKING AHEAD...

The Steelers go back on the road to play the Cincinnati Bengals on Sunday, Nov. 13, at Paul Brown Stadium. Kickoff is set for 1 p.m. and will be televised nationally on CBS (locally KDKA-TV, channel 2).

CB William Gay

- Made 26th career regular-season start and seventh consecutive of 2011. Including the postseason, marked ninth start in the past 10 games.

DT Ziggy Hood

- Made his sixth straight start, marking his 16th career start after starting 10 games in 2010 in place of the injured DE Aaron Smith.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR

PITTSBURGH TEAM NOTES

- The Steelers look to improve to 329-207 all-time against AFC opponents.
- Pittsburgh looks to open the season 5-0 at Heinz Field for the first time since 2007 when they started 7-0 at home.
- Including the regular and postseason, Pittsburgh is looking for eighth consecutive win at home, which marks longest home winning streak since winning 10 in row in 2008-09.
- Pittsburgh looks to earn its seventh victory in the last eight games.
- The Steelers defense looks to allow less than 150 passing yards for the fifth time in the last eight games.
- Pittsburgh's defense will look to hold their eighth straight opponent to 20 points or less (0, 20, 17, 17, 13, 20, 17).
- Looking for fifth consecutive win, the longest win streak since winning six in a row from 2009-10.

PITTSBURGH INDIVIDUAL NOTES

Head Coach Mike Tomlin

- Looks to improve to 8-4 against Baltimore including 6-1 at home during the regular season and postseason.
- Will look to improve to 50-23 overall and 29-8 at home during the regular season.
- Looks to become the fourth head coach in Steelers history to reach 50 regular season wins (Chuck Noll-209, Bill Cowher-161, Raymond Parker-51).
- Looks to win the first five home games of the season for the second time in five years (2007).

QB Ben Roethlisberger

- Looks to become the first Steelers' quarterback to throw for at least 300 yards in three consecutive games. Would mark the 19th 300-yard passing performance of Roethlisberger's career.
- Needs 196 passing yards to reach 25,000 for his career.
- Will look to record his 17th consecutive game with at least 200 yards passing.
- Looks for fourth 100.0+ rating of the season and 45th of his career.
- Will look to improve to 76-31 as a starter.
- Looks to improve to 30-8 versus AFC North opponents.
- Including the postseason, looking to improve record to 10-3 against the Ravens as a starter.

WR Hines Ward

- Needs 40 receiving yards to reach 12,000 for his career. He would be 19th player in NFL history to reach the mark and the first in Steelers' history. Ward will become the third player in NFL history to reach 12,000 career receiving yards and win multiple Super Bowls (Hall of Famers Jerry Rice and Art Monk).

TE Heath Miller

- Is 58 yards shy of passing Yancey Thigpen (3,651) for 11th place on the Steelers all-time receiving yards list.

RB Rashard Mendenhall

- Needs one rushing touchdown to tie Willie Parker (24) for the eighth-most in team history.
- Is 83 yards away from passing Frenchy Fuqua (2,942) for the 12th most career rushing yards in franchise history.

Rk.	Player	Rushing Yards	Car.
10.	Fran Rogel	3,271	900
11.	Merril Hoge	3,115	819
12.	Frenchy Fuqua	2,942	699
13.	Rashard Mendenhall	2,860	692

WR Mike Wallace

- With 100 yards receiving will record his 13th 100-yard receiving game of his career and the fifth of this season.
- If Wallace records at least 100 yards receiving it will be his eighth 100+ yard receiving game in the last 12 regular-season games. Below is the numbers from Wallace's last 11 regular-season games:

Game	Yards	Rec	TDs
12/19/10, vs. NYJ	102	7	0
12/23/10, vs. Car	104	4	1

10/23/11, at Ariz	118	3	1
10/30/11, vs. NE	70	7	0

*tied career-high set on 11/14/10 vs. New England

career-high

WR Antonio Brown

- After registering seven receptions for a career-best 102 yards at Arizona in Week 7 and then a career-high nine receptions for 67 yards versus New England in Week 8, will look to register at least seven receptions for the third straight game.

SS Troy Polamalu

- After returning a fumble 16 yards for the second fumble returned for a touchdown of his career vs. Indianapolis (Week 3), is one away from tying Jason Gildon (3) for the most fumbles returned for touchdowns in franchise history.
- Needs one touchdown to move into a tie for the second-most defensive touchdowns in Steelers history:

Player	INT TDs	FR TDs	Total Def. TDs
Rod Woodson	5	1	6
Carnell Lake	3	2	5
Dwayne Woodruff	3	2	5
Jack Butler	4	1	5
Troy Polamalu	2	2	4
Mel Blount	2	2	4
Jim Bradshaw	2	2	4
Donnie Shell	2	2	4
Chad Scott	4	0	4

- One interception shy of tying Jack Lambert (28) for the ninth-most in Steelers' history.
- Needs one interception return for a touchdown to tie Carnell Lake, Dwayne Woodruff, Deshea Townsend and Tony Campagno (3) for the third-most in franchise history.
- Needs 41 yards to surpass Chad Scott (368) for the ninth-most interception return yards in a career in Steelers' history.

LB LaMarr Woodley

- After recording more than one sack for the 16th time in his career during the regular season last week versus New England (2.0), looks to register at least 1.5 sacks in five consecutive regular season games for the first time in his career. It will also mark the first time an NFL player has recorded at least 1.5 sacks in five straight games since Simeon Rice in 2002.
- Needs one sack to reach 10.0 on the season, marking the fourth consecutive year Woodley has registered at least 10.0 sacks (2010 - 10.0, 2009 - 13.5, 2008 - 11.5).

DE Brett Keisel

- Will look to record a sack in back-to-back games for the fifth time in his career.
- One sack would give him four sacks over the last four games.

LB James Harrison

- Needs 2.5 sacks to tie Greg Lloyd (53.5) for the sixth-highest career total in team history.

TEAM NOTES

Safety First: Over the past two weeks the Steelers defense has registered two safeties: in Week 7 LB LaMarr Woodley forced QB Kevin Kolb into an intentional grounding penalty in the end zone and in Week 8 DE Brett Keisel stripped the ball from QB Tom Brady in the closing seconds and it rolled out of the end zone.

Dating back to 1960, this is the first time that the Steelers have registered safeties in back-to-back weeks. The last team in the NFL to register safeties in back-to-back games was the New York Giants in 2008. It is only the third time since 1960 that Pittsburgh has registered two safeties in one season (1962, 1980).

Toughest Division?: The AFC North is the only division in the NFL to have three teams at least three games over .500. It is also the only division to have three teams with two or fewer losses.

Two teams in the AFC North currently have winning streaks of at least four games (Pittsburgh, Cincinnati). Collectively, AFC North teams are 6-2 against the NFC this season. Since 2008, the AFC North has had two teams in the playoffs each year.

Ground Success: Against New England in Week 8, the Steelers totaled 98 yards on 23 carries (4.3 avg.), helping the offense control the ball for 39:22, the highest T.O.P. by the Steelers in a non-overtime game since 10/4/09 vs. San Diego (40:20). In Week 7 at Arizona the Steelers recorded 91 rushing yards on 28 carries, and controlled the ball for 35:47. Over the past four games Pittsburgh has out rushed their opponent, all wins.

In two of the past three home games (Weeks 5 and 6), the Steelers recorded 174 and 185 rushing yards, marking the first time Pittsburgh reached at least 160 rushing yards in back-to-back games since 2010 (162, 11/21/10 vs. Oak and 206, 11/28/10 at Buf). The Steelers are fifth in the NFL with 581 rushing yards in four home games. At Heinz Field Pittsburgh averages 4.9 yards per carry.

Against New England in Week 8, RB Rashard Mendenhall averaged 5.4 yards on 13 carries (70 yards). It was the second time this season he averaged over five yards per carry. In Week 6 versus Jacksonville, Mendenhall averaged of 6.3 yards per carry, his highest since averaging 7.0 against Denver on 11/9/09 (22 for 155). Mendenhall went over 100 rushing yards in the first half against the Jaguars for the first time in his career (113), including a career long run of 68 yards. It was the second-most rushing yards by a Steeler in the first half, dating back to 1991. At the end of the game Mendenhall had 146 yards on 23 carries, the fourth most rushing yards of his career (151, 155, 165).

The Steelers have achieved this success despite having a number of injuries to the offensive line since the start of the 2010 season. Last season the Steelers started five different combinations on the offensive line and so far in 2011 Pittsburgh has used a different starting offensive line combination in six of eight games.

This season Pittsburgh has also had to use a number of running backs due to injuries, three different Steelers have over 110 rushing yards through seven games and two have eclipsed 200 yards (Mendenhall, 421/Redman, 218).

Tough In The Air: This season has seen an unprecedented number of 300-yard passing games throughout the NFL. The Steelers number one ranked pass defense though has been yet to allow a team to even reach 260 net passing yards in a game.

Against New England in Week 7, the Steelers held the Patriots to 170 net passing yards, 180.5 yards below their season average entering the game. It was the lowest passing output for New England since 12/26/10 against Buffalo (131).

In Week 5, the Steelers' held the Jacksonville offense to 76 net passing yards. Pittsburgh only gave up 10 net passing yards in the first two quarters, which is the fifth-fewest net passing yards allowed by Pittsburgh's defense in the first half, dating back to 1991.

The Pittsburgh defense has held four of eight opponents under 145 net passing yards.

Opp.	Net Passing Yards	W/L
at Bal, 9/11 (Week 1)	215	L
vs. Sea, 9/18 (Week 2)	133	W
at Ind, 9/25 (Week 3)	144	W
at Hou, 10/2 (Week 4)	138	L
vs. Ten, 10/9 (Week 5)	240	W

at Ariz, 10/23 (Week 7)	257	W
vs. NE, 10/30 (Week 8)	170	W

The Steelers have held their opponents to a league-low 171.6 net passing yards per game. Pittsburgh opponents are averaging 5.76 yards per pass attempt, dating back to 1978 that is the third lowest average allowed by a Steelers' defense through the first eight games of a season.

Pittsburgh has allowed a total of 1,373 net passing yards this season, the lowest total allowed by the Steelers through eight games since 2008 (1,151).

Under Head Coach Mike Tomlin (2007-present) the Steelers have given up a league-low 188.6 net passing yards per game during the regular season:

Team	Net Passing Yards/Game (2007-Present)
Pittsburgh	188.6
New York Jets	196.5
Tampa Bay	199.1
Indianapolis	203.9
Oakland	204.8

Since the start of the 2007 season, Pittsburgh's defense has allowed only 81 passing touchdowns, the third fewest in the NFL over that time span (Indianapolis Colts, 78 and New York Jets, 77).

Limiting QBs: Pittsburgh has faced nine quarterbacks in eight games this season, holding six to a passer rating lower than 87.0. The Steelers have also not allowed a quarterback to throw for 300 yards and have held six of nine under 200 yards. Pittsburgh is one of six teams in the NFL to not allow a 300+ yard passer this season (Phi, Was, Cle, Cin, KC).

The Steelers limited Tom Brady to 198 passing yards, after he averaged 360.5 through his first six games this season. It was the first time Brady was held under 200 yards in 2011.

Opp QB	Cmp Pct.	Yds.	Rtg.

If You Build It, They Will Come: The Steelers registered three of the top-10 all-time attendance records for a single game during the 2010 season, including the single-game record.

In the 2010 AFC Championship victory over the N.Y. Jets, the Steelers broke the single-game record. The attendance of 66,662 surpassed the old mark of 65,597 set October 25, 2009, during a game versus the Minnesota Vikings.

The previous regular-season record was 65,392, which was set on November 16, 2009 versus Cincinnati.

Pittsburgh set the team home attendance record in 2009 by averaging 63,458 (507,882 total).

Pittsburgh has sold out 305 straight games at home, dating back to Nov. 5, 1972 versus Cincinnati.

Following is a look at the team's average attendance in its 10-plus years at Heinz Field:

Year	Total Attendance	Avg.
2001	499,191	62,399
2002	490,274	61,284

• Team record

Heinz Field Advantage: The Steelers own the best home record in the NFL with a 231-88-1 record (.723) since 1970. Pittsburgh is 46-14 (.767) at home over the past seven seasons, including a 4-0 record in 2011. This season marked the third time in the past five seasons that the Steelers opened 4-0 at home.

Pittsburgh finished the 2004 regular season with an undefeated (8-0) home record for only the third time in team history and for the first time in 25 years.

The Steelers finished the 1979 regular season with an undefeated home record (8-0) and eventually won Super Bowl XIV. The Steelers were also undefeated at home (7-0) in 1972.

The following is a look at the list of the Steelers' records at home since 2004:

Year	Record
2004	8-0
2005	5-3
2006	5-3
2007	7-1
2008	6-2
2009	6-2
2010	5-3
2011	4-0

Turning Up the Heat: Pittsburgh has registered 20 sacks in 2011, which is tied for second in the AFC and ninth in the NFL. The Steelers have registered 16 of the 20 sacks at Heinz Field to tied for the NFL lead for sacks at home.

The Steelers recorded five sacks in Week 2 versus Seattle, tying for the third highest single-game total of the Mike Tomlin era and the most since registering six versus Oakland on 11/21/10.

In Week 6 versus Jacksonville, Pittsburgh registered four of their five sacks in the first half, marking the 16th time since 1991 and the first time since 11/3/08 vs. Washington (4) that the Steelers recorded at least four sacks in the first half.

On the road the Steelers have recorded sacks at key times. Against Arizona in Week 7 LB LaMarr Woodley recorded a sack on third-and-seven at the PIT 45-yard line that forced a punt. Woodley also forced Cardinals QB Kevin Kolb into an intentionally grounding penalty in the end zone that resulted in a safety.

In Week 3 versus Indianapolis, LB James Harrison forced a fumble on a sack of Curtis Painter that S Troy Polamalu returned 16 yards for a touchdown to give Pittsburgh a 20-13 lead in the fourth quarter.

Since 1994, the Steelers have led the AFC in sacks six times and the entire NFL three times, including in 2010. Since 2004, the Steelers have the most sacks in the NFL with 326.

The Steelers led the NFL with 48 sacks in 2010, including a season-high six in Week 11 versus Oakland. In 2009, the Steelers finished with 47 sacks, ranking first in the AFC and second in the NFL.

Sacks became an official NFL statistic in 1982, however, a record of "passers tackled" was kept prior to that time. Following are the Steelers' single-season sack totals dating back to 1970:

* Team Record

Defensive Dominance: The Steelers have given up 17.4 points per game in 2011 to rank third in the NFL. Over the past seven weeks, Pittsburgh has given up a total of 104 points (14.9 points per game). In four home victories the Steelers have allowed a total of 47 points, giving up a league-low 11.8 points per game at home.

Rk Team	Points per game at home
1. Pittsburgh	11.8
2. New York Jets	13.5
3. Houston	14.0
4. San Francisco	14.3
5. Detroit Lions	16.0

Since Dick LeBeau has been defensive coordinator (2004-present) the Steelers have allowed an average of 15.9 points per game at Heinz Field, ranking second in the NFL over that time span for points given up at home during the regular season (Baltimore, 14.9).

Last season Pittsburgh gave up just 232 points, which ranked first in the AFC and in the NFL.

The Steelers have allowed the fewest points in the NFL since the beginning of the 2007 season. Pittsburgh has allowed just 1,187 points during that span (16.5 per game).

The following is a list of the top four teams in the NFL who have allowed the fewest points since the start of the 2007 campaign:

Team	Points Allowed
Pittsburgh	1,187
Baltimore	1,269
New England	1,341
Green Bay	1,349

Controlling The NFC: After beating Arizona and Seattle in 2011, the Steelers have won 25 of their past 30 regular-season games versus teams in the NFC, dating back to 2003.

The Steelers are 99-58-1 all-time against the NFC, including 56-19-1 at home. Pittsburgh has won seven of their last eight games against NFC opponents.

The Steelers have reeled off six consecutive home victories versus NFC teams. Pittsburgh last lost to an NFC team at Heinz Field in 2008 (21-14, vs. New York Giants). Prior to losing to the Giants, Pittsburgh had won eight straight games versus NFC teams at home. The Steelers are 6-2 versus the NFC in the Super Bowl.

Road Warriors: The Steelers have had great success playing away from Heinz Field over the last decade. Dating back to the start of 2010 season, the Steelers have won nine of their past 12 road games.

Since the beginning of the 2000 season, the Steelers own the fourth-best road winning percentage in the NFL. The following is a list of the top road winning percentages since 2000:

Team	W	L	I	Pct.
Philadelphia	59	32	1	.647
New England	59	33	0	.641

Pittsburgh	55	37	0	.598
New York Giants	52	39	0	.571
New Orleans	53	40	0	.570

Four Straight: In Week 6, the Steelers played the final game of four consecutive games against the AFC South. With a 17-13 win over the Jacksonville Jaguars, the Steelers finished the stretch 3-1. Pittsburgh opened up against the division with a 23-20 victory at Indianapolis in Week 3, followed by a 17-10 loss in Houston and a Pittsburgh victory over the Tennessee Titans at Heinz Field.

Steelers Head Coach Mike Tomlin improved to 7-4 against the AFC South during the regular season, including 2-1 against the Jaguars. Under Tomlin the Steelers are 4-2 at home against the AFC South during the regular season, including winning the last four. Overall, Pittsburgh is 6-5 at home versus the AFC South.

Starting Away From Home: This season the Steelers played three of their first four games on the road for the first time since 2001, and for only the eighth time in team history. In 2001, Pittsburgh went 3-1, including winning two out of three of those road games. This season the Steelers finished 1-2 on the road, losing the final away game in Week 4 at Houston, 17-10. The Steelers have won seven of their last nine regular-season road games.

Since 1970, Pittsburgh has opened the season with three of the first four games on the road six times and in five of those occurrences, including this season, they finished the four-game set with at least a .500 record. The chart below shows how they finished the first four games and the regular season.

1982 was a strike interrupted season

Defense! Defense! Defense!: Pittsburgh shut out the Seattle Seahawks in Week 2, 24-0. It marked the fourth shutout during the Mike Tomlin era and the first since 12/28/08 (31-0, vs. Cleveland). It marked the 28th shutout for the Steelers since 1960, which is the second most in the NFL during that time span:

Team	Shutouts
Chicago	30
Pittsburgh	28
Miami	25
New England	24
San Francisco	24

Continued Success: Since the 1970 merger of the National and American Football Leagues, the Pittsburgh Steelers own the best record in the NFL.

The following is a look at the top three regular-season records since the merger in 1970:

Team	W	L	I	Pct.
1. Pittsburgh Steelers	390	248	2	.611
2. Miami Dolphins	379	258	2	.595

2. Green Bay Packers	696
3. New York Giants	661
4. Pittsburgh Steelers	583
5. Washington Redskins	574

Additionally, Pittsburgh owns the second-best record in the NFL since the free-agency era (since 1993) with a 187-108-1 (.633) record.

The following is a look at the top three regular-season records in the free agency era (since 1993):

Team	W	L	T	Pct.
1. New England Patriots	190	105	0	.644
2. Pittsburgh Steelers	187	108	1	.633
3. Green Bay Packers	186	109	0	.631

Regular-Season Success: Pittsburgh owns the third-best regular-season record in the NFL over the past 10-plus seasons. The Steelers have averaged over 10 wins per year and have earned seven playoff berths, six division titles and two Super Bowl victories in that time period.

The following are the top five teams in regular-season winning percentage from 2000-2011:

Team	W	L	T	Pct.	Playoff Berths
New England	131	52	0	.716	8
Indianapolis	125	59	0	.679	9
Pittsburgh	121	62	1	.660	7
Philadelphia	116	66	1	.637	9
Green Bay	112	71	0	.612	7

Sustaining Success: Pittsburgh has made the playoffs six times and won the AFC North five times since the divisional realignment in 2002. The Steelers won the AFC North Division for the third time in four years in 2010.

The Steelers have won 20 division titles since the NFL merger in 1970, the most in the NFL during that time.

The following is a list of teams that have won the most division titles and qualified for the playoffs since 2002:

Team	Playoffs	Division Titles
Indianapolis	9	7
New England	7	7
Philadelphia	7	6
Pittsburgh	6	5
San Diego	5	5
Green Bay	6	4

In the Red Zone: Over the past four weeks the Steelers are 15-15 in the red zone, coming away with nine touchdowns and six field goals. Pittsburgh was 5-for-5 in both Week 8 versus New England and in Week 5 against Tennessee. The performance against the Titans marked only the second time since the start of the 2010 regular season that the Steelers recorded four touchdowns in the red zone (4 TDs, at Cleveland, 1/2/11).

Following is a look at how the Steelers offense has performed in the red zone this season:

Opponent	Att./Scores	TDs	FGs	Pts
@ Baltimore	2/1	1	0	7
vs. Seattle	4/3	2	1	17
@ Indianapolis	2/1	0	1	3

at Arizona	3/3	2	1	17
vs. New England	5/5	2	3	23
Total	26/22	13	9	118

Red Zone Defense: Over the past three weeks the Steelers have allowed their opponents to enter the red zone a total of just five times.

In a Week 2 shutout of Seattle, the Steelers defense didn't allow the Seahawks offense to reach the red zone and only one Seattle possession ended across mid-field.

Following is a look at how the Steelers' defense has performed in the red zone in 2011:

Opponent	Att./Scores	TDs	FGs	Pts
@ Baltimore	6/5	3	2	27
vs. Seattle	0/0	0	0	0
@ Indianapolis	3/3	1	2	13

COACHING NOTES

Strong Out Of The Gate: The Steelers started 6-2 for the fifth consecutive season under Tomlin. He is the only coach in Steelers history and in the NFL (since 1978) to open each of his first five seasons with at least six wins through the first eight games.

This season marked the 14th time since 1978 that Pittsburgh has opened the season with at least six wins in their first eight games. In 13 of those cases the Steelers went on to make the playoffs.

Pittsburgh won their first four home games for the third time in five seasons under Tomlin.

In Week 2, Pittsburgh won its fifth straight home opener under Head Coach Mike Tomlin. He is the only Steelers head coach to win his first five home openers.

Under Tomlin the Steelers are 14-5 (.737) in the month of October, the third best winning percentage in the NFL in October since 2007 (New England, .857; New York Giants, .800).

Primetime Specialist: Head Coach Mike Tomlin improved to 16-5 overall in primetime games, including an 8-3 record on the road, with the Week Three win at Indianapolis. He is 6-0 on Monday Night Football, 6-4 on Sunday Night Football and 4-1 on Thursday Night Football.

Tomlin joined only Bill Cowher (Steelers), Tom Flores (Raiders), Steve Mariucci (49ers), George Siefert (49ers) and Don Shula (Colts, Dolphins) as coaches to win their first six Monday Night Football games.

Our House: Head Coach Mike Tomlin owns a 28-8 regular-season record at Heinz Field in his four seasons in Pittsburgh.

For the third time in Tomlin's five seasons, the Steelers are 4-0 in 2011 at home.

In Control: Head Coach Mike Tomlin owns an 18-7 all-time mark against teams in the AFC North.

Tomlin owns an impressive 10-2 record against divisional foes at Heinz Field.

Tomlin Versus the NFC: Following Week 7's victory over the Arizona Cardinals Head Coach Mike Tomlin improved his regular-season record to 13-5 against NFC teams in his fifth season at the helm of the Steelers.

The Steelers .722 regular season winning percentage against the NFC since 2007 is tied for the third best in the NFL.

Team	W	L	Pct.
New England	16	1	.941
Tennessee	14	2	.875
Pittsburgh	13	5	.722
Baltimore	13	5	.722
Green Bay	37	17	.685

Under Tomlin, the Steelers improved to 6-1, including the postseason, against the NFC West. Pittsburgh's only loss came to the Cardinals at University of Phoenix Stadium in 2007 (14-21).

Over the past two regular seasons the Steelers are 7-2 against the NFC, including 3-2 on the road.

Leading The Way: Pittsburgh Head Coach Mike Tomlin has the highest regular-season winning percentage (.681) amongst active NFL head coaches who have coached a minimum of 60 games:

Name	W	L	T	Win Pct.
Mike Tomlin (Pit 2007-11)	49	23	0	.681
Bill Belichick (Cle 1991-95, NE 2000-11)	167	96	0	.635

Tom Coughlin (Jac 1995-02, NYG 2004-11)	138	109	0	.559

Among The Best: Since Mike Tomlin was named head coach of the Steelers in 2007, Pittsburgh has compiled the second-most wins in the NFL during that time span (49). The following is the top five regular-season records in the NFL since 2007:

Team	Record	Playoff App.	Super Bowl App.
NE	56-15	3	1
PIT	49-23	3	2
IND	49-23	4	1
GB	47-24	3	1
SD	45-25	3	0

Nine Times: Head Coach Mike Tomlin became only the seventh head coach to win at least nine games in each of his first four seasons since the NFL merger in 1970.

Tomlin joined George Siefert, Mike Holmgren, Bill Cowher, Chuck Knox, Mike Sherman and John Robinson.

Few And Far Between: Head Coach Mike Tomlin became only the second coach in Steelers' history to post winning records in each of his first four seasons. Tomlin is the only coach in team history to win division titles in each of his first two seasons (2007-08).

In 2007, Tomlin became the second head coach in team history to post a winning record in his first season with a mark of 10-6.

High Honor Roll: Defensive coordinator Dick LeBeau was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in August of 2010. LeBeau had an outstanding NFL career, finishing with 62 career interceptions (seventh all-time) and 171 consecutive starts (then-NFL record for a cornerback) with the Detroit Lions.

LeBeau was also inducted into the Ohio State University Hall of Fame in 2009. He played at Ohio State as a cornerback and halfback and was a member of the 1957 national championship team.

Defensive Mastermind: The Steelers defense has been led by defensive coordinator Dick LeBeau since 2004. During that time span it has been regarded as one of the top defenses in the NFL, helping to lead the Steelers to three Super Bowls. Below is how the LeBeau's defenses rank since the start of the 2004 season:

Defensive Category	Statistic	Rank (NFL)

INDIVIDUAL OFFENSIVE NOTES

300-Yard Plateau: Over the past two weeks, QB Ben Roethlisberger has registered over 300 yards passing in back-to-back games for only the second time in his career (301, 10/29/06 at Oah; 433, 11/6/06 vs. Den). Roethlisberger accumulated 365 yards on 36-of-50 pass attempts with two touchdowns and one interception. In Week 7, he totaled 361 yards and three touchdowns at Arizona.

Roethlisberger has now thrown for at least 300 yards three times this season and the 18 times in his career, a team record.

Roethlisberger previously registered 364 passing yards in Week 3 at Indianapolis. The Steelers have won six of the last seven games where Roethlisberger has thrown for 300 yards.

Quick Start: QB Ben Roethlisberger has a passer rating of 104.9 in the first half of games in 2011 to rank third in the NFL (Aaron Rodgers-131.9, Tom Brady-111.6). He has completed 100-of-152 pass attempts for 1,250 yards, 10 touchdowns and three interceptions in the first half of the first eight games this season.

In Week 7 versus Arizona, he registered a first-half passer rating of 140.4 by completing 9-of-16 passes for 199 yards and two touchdowns. Roethlisberger followed that up by completing a first half career-high 23-of-32 passes for 231 yards, the fifth highest passing yardage total of his career in the first half, with two touchdowns and one interception.

Over the last four weeks Roethlisberger has led the Steelers offense to points on 12-of-20 first-half possessions (nine TDs, three FGs), including scoring a touchdown on the opening drive in each of the last four games.

In Week 5 against Tennessee, Roethlisberger recorded three touchdown passes in the first half. It marked the fourth time in his career he totaled at least four touchdown passes in the first half and was only the sixth time since 1991 that a Steelers quarterback achieved the feat.

Player	Opp.	Passing TDs/First Half
Ben Roethlisberger	Bal (11/5/07)	5
Ben Roethlisberger	Ten (10/9/11)	3

Ben Roethlisberger	StL (12/20/07)	3
Charlie Batch	TB (9/26/10)	3
Kordell Stewart	Den (12/7/97)	3

Roethlisberger completed 7-of-11 passes for 171 yards and one touchdown for a 137.5 passer rating in the first quarter against the Colts in Week 3. The 171 yards were the most yards he has thrown for in the first quarter during his career. Dating back to 1991, it was the highest first-quarter passing total of any Steelers' quarterback.

Roethlisberger went on to total 231 yards during the first half, the fifth highest first half total of his career. Out of those five games, the Steelers went on to win four of them.

A Good Month: With the victory against the New England Patriots, the Steelers, led by QB Ben Roethlisberger, went 4-1 in the month of October. Roethlisberger is now 22-7 in the month of October. The 22 wins are the most for him in any month. Among active quarterbacks Roethlisberger's 102.7 career passer rating in October is second best among active quarterbacks (Aaron Rodgers, 107.5).

Compared to September, November, December and January Roethlisberger has recorded the following career-highs in the month of October: attempts (837), completions (562), completion percentage (67.1), passing yards (7,042), TDs (54), yards per attempt (8.41) and QB rating (102.7).

Roethlisberger has only thrown 24 INTs for his career in October, which is the second-fewest of any month. Here is a recap of Roethlisberger's performances this October:

Date	Opp	Att	Cmp	Pct	Yds	TD	INT	Rtg

Racking Up Yards: QB Ben Roethlisberger is in the midst of a career-long streak of 16 regular-season games with at least 200 passing yards. For the first time in his career, Roethlisberger recorded at least 200 yards passing in each of the first eight games of the 2011 season.

Dating back to 1978, Roethlisberger's 2,302 passing yards in eight games this season are the most thrown by a Steelers quarterback in the first eight games of a season.

Player	Year	Passing Yards, Games 1-8
Ben Roethlisberger	2011	2,302
Ben Roethlisberger	2009	2,295
Tommy Maddox	2003	1,871
Terry Bradshaw	1981	1,841
Terry Bradshaw	1980	1,790

Finding The End Zone: QB Ben Roethlisberger recorded the 20th game of his career with at least three touchdown passes in Week 7 at Arizona and the second one in three weeks. In the Steelers last four games, all victories, Roethlisberger has thrown for 11 touchdowns and two interceptions.

He tied a career high with five touchdown passes in Week 5 against Tennessee. It was the fourth time in his career he threw at least four touchdown passes in one game and only the second time he totaled five (11/5/07 at Baltimore). Roethlisberger is the only Steelers quarterback to throw for a franchise-best five touchdowns in a single game twice during the regular season:

Player	Opp	Passing TDs
Ben Roethlisberger	Ten (10/9/11)	5
Ben Roethlisberger	Bal (11/5/07)	5
Mark Malone	Ind (9/8/85)	5
Terry Bradshaw	Atl (11/15/81)	5

Since the start of the 2007 season, Roethlisberger has the third-most games with at least five touchdown passes in the NFL.

Player	Game of 5+ Passing TDs
Tom Brady	4
Drew Brees	3
Ben Roethlisberger	2
Carson Palmer	2

Facing The NFC: With a career record of 75-31 as a starter, QB Ben Roethlisberger has posted gaudy numbers no matter the opposition.

Throughout his career, Roethlisberger has feasted on competition from the NFC. In two games against the NFC this season, victories over Seattle and Arizona, he is 48-of-69 (69.6) for 659 yards with four touchdowns, zero interceptions and a passer rating of 119.2.

In 27 career regular-season games against NFC opponents, Roethlisberger has posted a 21-6 record while completing 432-of-698 passes (61.9 pct.) for 5,900 yards with 37 touchdowns and 17 interceptions for a passer rating of 96.4.

Roethlisberger's statistics against the NFC are equally impressive in games at Heinz Field. In 14 career games against NFC opponents at home, Roethlisberger has a 13-1 mark while completing 217-of-365 passes (59.5 pct.) for 3,139 yards with 18 touchdowns and eight interceptions for a passer rating of 94.8.

Roethlisberger won his first seven starts against NFC teams.

Titan-Sized Performances: QB Ben Roethlisberger improved to 3-1 during his career versus the Tennessee Titans, with all three wins coming at Heinz Field. In Week 5, Roethlisberger completed 24-of-34 passes for 228 yards, five touchdowns, one interception and a passer rating of 116.2. It marked his 43rd regular-season game with a passer rating of 100.0+ and his second against the Titans. His Week 5 performance earned Roethlisberger the seventh AFC Offensive Player of the Week honor of his career and the first since 1/2/11 at Cleveland.

In his first game versus Tennessee back on 9/11/05, Roethlisberger recorded his first perfect passer rating of 158.3 after completing 9-of-11 passes for 218 yards and two touchdowns.

Comeback Kid: In Week 3 at Indianapolis, QB Ben Roethlisberger led the Steelers on a 10-play, 60-yard drive in the final two minutes that led to a game-winning 38-yard field goal with 0:04 left. It marked his 24th game winning/overtime drive of his career in the regular season. The win improved him to 27-12 in games decided by six points or less (including postseason).

Title Man: QB Ben Roethlisberger has led the Steelers to the AFC Championship Game four times in his first seven seasons.

He is one of only two active NFL quarterbacks to win multiple Super Bowl titles (Tom Brady).

Roethlisberger joined Roger Staubach, Bernie Kosar, Tom Brady and Donovan McNabb as the only quarterbacks to lead their teams to the conference title game at least three times in their first five seasons as the starting quarterback.

Controlling The North: QB Ben Roethlisberger owns a 29-8 (.784) record as a starter against AFC North opponents during his career with the Steelers. He finished a perfect 5-0 in 2010 against divisional foes.

Roethlisberger had won 12 straight games against divisional foes as the starter prior to the Week 3 setback at Cincinnati in 2009, which was the longest streak in the NFL and the longest since Peyton Manning won 12 straight from 2004-06.

In his 37 career games versus division opponents, Roethlisberger has posted a perfect passer rating once (11/5/07 vs. Baltimore) and has recorded a passer rating of over 100.0 a total of 14 times.

The following is a look at his statistics against the AFC North in his 37 games as a starter:

37 games vs. AFC North (as a starter)
Record	29-8
Completion Pct. (Comp.-Att.)	60.8 (643-1,057)
Passing Yards	8,200
Passing Touchdowns	51
Interceptions	35

Home Cooking: QB Ben Roethlisberger owns a 42-12 (.778) mark in the regular season in his career at Heinz Field, including winning his first eight starts as a rookie in 2004.

At Heinz Field, Roethlisberger has completed 63.3 percent of his passes for 12,909 with 81 touchdowns and 44 interceptions for a passer rating of 94.4. He has thrown for more than 300 yards 10 times and has 24 multi-touchdown games at home (19-5 record in such games), including a franchise and career tying high five touchdowns versus the Titans in Week 5.

Roethlisberger has twice posted a perfect passer rating at home, including most recently in Week 9 of 2007 against Baltimore. He also had a perfect passer rating (158.3) against Tennessee in the 2005 season opener and has posted at least a 125.0 passer rating seven times.

The Steelers have scored at least 20 points in 44 of the 54 games at home with Roethlisberger as the starter.

Starting In Style: In his career, QB Ben Roethlisberger owns a 75-31 (.708) record as a starting quarterback in the regular season. That mark is the second-best record in the NFL among all active quarterbacks (min. 50 starts).

Roethlisberger reached 75 wins in 106 starts, making him the fourth-fastest quarterback to reach 75 victories among QBs who began their careers in the Super Bowl era, trailing Pro Football Hall of Famer Roger Staubach (99), Tom Brady (99) and Ken Stabler (105).

With a win in Week 2 over Seattle, Roethlisberger reached 70 victories in the fourth-fewest starts (100) among quarterbacks who began their career in the Super Bowl era, only trailing Staubach (94), Brady (94) and Stabler (98) in that category.

His 63-27 record after his first 90 starts in the NFL ranks third (tied) in league history for the best record in such starts. Only Tom Brady (67-23) and Ken Stabler (66-23-1) had better records in their first 90 starts in the NFL. Roethlisberger's record is tied with Jim McMahon.

The following is a look at the top five starting records among active quarterbacks in the NFL (min. 50 starts):

Name	W	L	T	Pct.
1. Tom Brady, Patriots	116	36	0	.763
2. Ben Roethlisberger, Steelers	75	31	0	.708
3. Matt Ryan, Falcons	37	16	0	.698
4. Philip Rivers, Chargers	62	29	0	.681
5. Peyton Manning, Colts	141	67	0	.678

Movin' On Up: QB Ben Roethlisberger leads the Steelers in nearly 40 different career categories and is tied for first in five other categories. The following is where Roethlisberger ranks in Steelers history in several key passing categories:

Passing Perfection: QB Ben Roethlisberger has achieved a number of outstanding single-season accomplishments in his eight-year career, including achieving a feat three times that is rarely done in the NFL.

Roethlisberger, who set the team's single-season mark for passer rating (104.1) in 2007, has had a perfect passer rating (158.3) three times in his career, tying him with QB Peyton Manning for the most in NFL history (minimum 10 attempts).

Roethlisberger's 44 career 100-plus passer rating games in the regular season rank first in team history, surpassing Terry Bradshaw, who had 31 such games since the passer rating rule was implemented in 1973.

Taking Care of the Ball: QB Ben Roethlisberger completed 8-of-15 passes against Baltimore in Week 1 before throwing an interception early in the third quarter, ending his career-best streak of not throwing an interception in 173 consecutive passes. His interception streak started on December 5, 2010, at Baltimore.

Deadly Combination: Through eight games in 2011, QB Ben Roethlisberger and WR Mike Wallace have continued the success that started last season, hooking up for 800 yards on 43 receptions with five touchdowns.

The two have combined for 11 touchdowns of at least 40 yards since the start of 2009, which ranks first in team history and is the second-most amongst active players in the NFL (12, Peyton Manning and Reggie Wayne).

Through eight games in 2011, Roethlisberger and Wallace have recorded three touchdowns of at least 40 yards. In Week 7 at Arizona Roethlisberger and Wallace connected on a 95-yard touchdown, the longest pass play and second longest offensive play from scrimmage in Steelers history. In Week Five versus Tennessee, Roethlisberger and Wallace connected on a 40-yard touchdown pass. In Week 3 at Indianapolis the two recorded an 81-yard touchdown, marking the fourth-longest pass of Roethlisberger's career and the second longest reception for Wallace. The following is a list of the top QB-WR combos in terms of touchdowns of 40 yards in club history:

		Career TDs of
Quarterback/Wide Receiver		40-plus yds.
Ben Roethlisberger/Mike Wallace		11
Bubby Brister/Louis Lipps		7
Terry Bradshaw/John Stallworth		6
Jim Finks/Ray Mathews		6

Moving Up: WR Hines Ward moved passed Hall of Fame WR Michael Irvin (11,904) into 19th place in NFL history in receiving yards. Out of the 18 players ahead of Ward on the NFL career receiving yards list, only Jerry Rice and Art Monk have multiple Super Bowl rings, and both are Hall of Famers.

In Week 5, Ward registered a team-high seven receptions for 54 yards with two touchdown, his 16th career multi-touchdown game during the regular season and first since 11/9/09 at Denver (2). Ward now has 11,939 career receiving yards and needs 61 yards to be the 18th player in NFL history to reach 12,000 receiving yards:

Rk.	Player	Rec. Yards	Rec.
16.	Jimmy Smith (1992-2005)	12,287	862
17.	Charlie Joiner (1969-86)	12,146	750

20.	Michael Irvin (1988-1999)	11,904	750

Top Dawg: WR Hines Ward leads the Steelers in at least 15 different career receiving categories.

Ward is the team's all-time leader in receiving yards (11,960), receptions (980) and receiving touchdowns (85).

Ward is the only wide receiver in Steelers history to be voted to four Pro Bowls. Ward's 1,167 receiving yards in 2009 made him the first Steelers receiver to reach 1,000 yards six times during his career with the team. No other Steeler has more than three.

Additionally, Ward has 29 career 100-yard receiving games, which is first on the team's all-time list.

In 2002, Ward became the first receiver in Steelers history to catch 100 passes (112) in a season. His 12 touchdown receptions in 2002 tied him with Louis Lipps (1985) and Buddy Dial (1961) for the highest single-season total in team history.

Ward was selected to the 2002-05 AFC Pro Bowl squads.

Ward Sticking Around: WR Hines Ward is in his 14th year in the league and currently ranks first among active wide receivers (T-7th overall in NFL history) with 977 career receptions. The following is a list of the top three active wide receivers with the most career receptions:

Active Player	Career Receptions
Hines Ward	980
Derrick Mason	942
Reggie Wayne	822

In Reach Of 12,000: WR Hines Ward needs 40 receiving yards to reach 12,000 for his career, becoming the 19th player in NFL history to reach the mark.

Currently there are only two players in NFL history to reach 12,000 receiving yards while playing for one team during their entire career (Marvin Harrison, Ind. and Steve Largent, Sea.).

In 2010, Ward became the first player in Steelers' history to reach 11,000 career receiving yards. Additionally, Ward, who has 967 career receptions, became just the 12th player in NFL history to record 900 receptions and 11,000 yards in a career.

The following is a list of the players who have played their entire career with one team and posted more than 10,000 receiving yards:

Player (Team)	Total Receiving Yds.
Marvin Harrison (Colts)	14,580
Steve Largent (Seahawks)	13,089
Hines Ward (Steelers)	11,960
Michael Irvin (Cowboys)	11,904
Rod Smith (Broncos)	11,389

Hines Hanging Around: WR Hines Ward has been with the Steelers since he was drafted in the third round in the 1998 NFL Draft. 2011 marks Ward's 14th season with the Steelers, which ties for the second longest tenure in team history behind Mike Webster, who played in Pittsburgh 15 years (1974-88). Ward owns the longest tenure among wide receivers with their current team.

The following is a list of the longest-tenured wideouts with their current team:

Player	Team	First Year With Team
Hines Ward	Steelers	1998
Donald Driver	Packers	1999

Red-Zone Receiver: WR Hines Ward has been a major target for Pittsburgh quarterbacks in the red zone. In Week 5 he recorded two touchdown receptions in the red zone against Tennessee.

Since 2002, Ward is second in the NFL with 50 red-zone receiving touchdowns. Ward had four red-zone touchdowns in 2010.

The following is a look at the top three active players in the NFL with receiving touchdowns in the red zone since 2002:

Player (Team)	# of Red-Zone TDs
1. Antonio Gates (Chargers)	52
2. Hines Ward (Steelers)	50
3. Larry Fitzgerald (Cardinals)	46

Ward On The Run: WR Hines Ward's versatility makes him a threat to run the football as well as catch a pass.

Ward has 428 career rushing yards to mark the most by a Steelers wide receiver in team history.

Ward scored his first (and only) career rushing touchdown in 2004 against Philadelphia.

Wallace Continues To Thrive: WR Mike Wallace has started the 2011 season right where he left off in 2010, recording 43 receptions for 800 yards (18.6 avg.) and five touchdowns in his first eight games. Dating back to 1978, Wallace's 800 receiving yards is a franchise record for the first eight games of the season and his 43 receptions is tied for the sixth most through eight games. The following is the top five receiving yardage totals through eight games by Steelers since 1978:

Player	Rec. Yards	Rec.	TDs
Mike Wallace (2011)	800	43	5
John Stallworth (1984)	757	43	2
Yancey Thigpen (1997)	687	40	2
Yancey Thigpen (1995)	672	42	2
John Stallworth (1981)	655	37	3

100 Is the Number: In Week 7 at Arizona Wallace gained 118 yards on three receptions, including a 95-yard touchdown, the longest reception and second longest offensive play from scrimmage in team history. It was Wallace's fourth 100-yard receiving game of the season.

He posted 100 yards receiving in each of the first three games this season, setting a franchise-best streak of six consecutive games with at least 100 yards receiving.

Wallace's six consecutive games with 100+ yards receiving tied the second longest streak in NFL history:

Player	Team	Year	100-yard Receiving Games In a Row
Charley Hannigan	Hou	1961	7
Michael Irvin	Dal	1995	7
Mike Wallace	Pit	2010-11	6
Raymond Berry	Bal	1960	6
Bill Groman	Hou	1961	6
Pat Studstill	Det	1966	6
Isaac Bruce	StL	1995	6

Wallace now has 12 career 100-yard receiving games during the regular season, passing Plaxico Burress (11) for the fourth-most in Steelers' history:

Rk.	Player	Years	Career 100-yard Receiving Games
1.	Hines Ward	1998-Present	29
2.	John Stallworth	1974-87	25
3.	Louis Lipps	1984-91	16
4.	Mike Wallace	2009-Present	12

In Week 3 at Indianapolis, Wallace set a career high with 144 yards on five receptions, including an 81-yard touchdown. Dating back to 1991, Wallace's 129 yards on three receptions were the most by a Steelers' receiver in the first quarter.

In each of the first two regular-season games this season, Wallace matched his career-high of eight receptions in a game, originally set on 11/14/10 vs. New England.

In 2010, he posted his first career 1,000-yard season as he led all Steelers with 60 receptions, 1,257 receiving yards and 10 receiving touchdowns, all career highs.

Breakout Campaign: WR Mike Wallace had a personal-best 10 receiving touchdowns in 2010. Through eight games this season, Wallace has five touchdowns.

Wallace led the NFL with seven 100-yard receiving games in 2010, tying the team's regular-season record set by John Stallworth in 1984. Through eight games in 2011, Wallace has four 100-yard receiving games.

Player	Year	100-yard receiving games (single season)
Mike Wallace	2010	7
John Stallworth	1984	7
Yancey Thigpen	1997	6
Hines Ward	2009	5
Louis Lipps	1989	5

Going Deep: WR Mike Wallace was one of the NFL's top deep threats last season, averaging a conference-best 21.0 yards per catch (2nd in NFL), after leading the NFL in receiving average as a rookie in 2009. Through eight games in 2011, Wallace is averaging 18.6 yards per catch, good enough for fifth best in the NFL.

Since entering the league in 2009, Wallace has averaged 20.3 yards per catch, which ties for the NFL lead (DeSean Jackson, Phi.) and has 37 receptions of 25+ yards to lead the NFL.

So far in 2011, Wallace is tied for second in the NFL with nine receptions of at least 25 yards (26, 28t, 29, 40, 40t, 48, 53, 81t, 95t). He had 26 receptions for at least 20 yards in 2010, the most for Pittsburgh since Hall of Famer John Stallworth had 24 in 1984.

Through eight games in 2011, Wallace has six receptions of at least 40 yards, including a 81-yard touchdown at Indianapolis in Week 3 and a 95-yard touchdown in Week 7 at Arizona, which ranks as the second longest offensive play from scrimmage and the longest pass play in Steelers' history. Wallace registered a reception of at least 40 yards in six consecutive games this season (Games 2-7), the longest such streak in the NFL since Isaac Bruce in 2000 (Games 2-7).

The following is a list of all of Wallace's receptions (21) of at least 40 yards (bolded are 2011 receptions):

Reception	Opponent	Date
95 yards (TD)	at Arizona	10/23/11

40 yards (TD)	vs. Tennessee	10/9/11
40 yards	at Houston	10/2/11
40 yards (TD)	vs. Minnesota	10/25/09

Last season, Wallace caught a 46-yard touchdown and a 41-yard touchdown in the Steelers' Week 3 victory at Tampa Bay. He became the first Steelers' receiver to have two 40-plus-yard touchdowns in the same game since Louis Lipps on Dec. 4, 1988 at Houston. Only five times in club history has a receiver had two touchdown catches of at least 40 yards.

The following is a look at the five times in franchise history a player has posted two touchdown receptions of at least 40 yards in a game:

Reception	Opponent	Date
Mike Wallace	at Tampa Bay	9/26/10
Louis Lipps	at Houston	12/4/88
Lynn Swann	Cincinnati	12/2/79
Gary Ballman	Washington	9/25/66
Ray Mathews	Cleveland	10/17/54

Miller Time: TE Heath Miller recorded his best game of 2011 in Week 8 against New England, recording seven receptions for 85 yards. Miller got off to a fast start, registering four receptions on the first drive of the game to account for 55 of the Steelers 68 total yards on the touchdown drive. Miller tied a first half career-high with six receptions and set a first half career-high with 76 yards. Miller previously registered six receptions in the first half against San Diego on 10/4/09, totaling 58 yards. Dating back to 1991, Miller's six receptions tied Eric Green (6 for 118 yards, 9/22/91 vs. Philadelphia) for the most receptions by a Steelers' tight end in the first half.

Miller ranks second on the Steelers' all-time receptions list (316) and receiving yardage list (3,594) for tight ends. Miller trails Elbie Nickel in both (329 receptions, 5,133 receiving yards) on the team's all-time list for tight ends.

Four receptions in Week 7 brought Miller to sixth place in Pittsburgh history, passing Franco Harris (306). Three receptions in Week 5 against Tennessee made Miller the seventh player and second tight end in team history to reach 300 career receptions.

Miller hauled in his first touchdown of 2011 and the 30th of his career, making him the eighth Steelers player to record at least 30 receiving touchdowns. He is second on the team's all-time list for touchdowns by a tight end (31). After registering a touchdown in the Week 7 victory over Arizona, Pittsburgh improved 22-6 when Miller finds the end zone.

Growing Up: WRs Antonio Brown and Emmanuel Sanders are two second-year players that continue to get better as each game goes by. Last season both showed flashes of their ability late in the season and through out the postseason. In 2011 they are showing up on a more consistent basis on offense.

Brown has shown more consistency as a receiver so far in 2011. Over the past two weeks Brown has set career-highs in receiving yards: 102 on seven receptions at Arizona in Week 7, and receptions: nine for 67 yards versus New England in Week 8.

Brown is tied for the AFC lead in third-down receptions, with 14 for 205 yards this season. Through eight games, Brown ranks second on the Steelers with 431 yards on 34 receptions, more than doubling his rookie totals of 167 yards on 16 receptions in nine games played last season.

After a slow start Sanders has come alive over the past two weeks. In Week 8 versus New England, Sanders registered five receptions for 70 yards. At Arizona in Week 7 Sanders totaled 46 yards on five receptions and hauled in his second touchdown reception of the season.

More From Moore: RB Mewelde Moore has always been a steady contributor for the Steelers on special teams and on offense. It hasn't been any different so far in 2011.

After missing two games due to injury, Moore averaged 4.3 yards on six carries (26 yards) at Arizona in Week 7 and registered one run for 16 yards and two receptions for 29 yards, including a five-yard touchdown reception against New England. It was Moore's first touchdown since 12/20/09 vs. Green Bay.

In the Week 3 win at Indianapolis Moore helped move the Steelers in position for the game-winning field goal in the final minutes with three plays: 22-yard reception to the Colts' 41-yard line, five-yard run to the Colts 25-yard line and a four-yard run to the Colts 21-yard line.

In Week 4 at Houston, Moore helped fill in for RB Rashard Mendenhall, when he left the game in the third quarter due to a hamstring injury, by registering 34 yards on four carries. It marked his highest single-game rushing performance since 11/30/08 at New England (67 yards on 12 carries).

Continuing To Contribute: RB Isaac Redman is second on the team with 218 yards on 54 carries. The second-year back is tied for first in the NFL in third and one rushing, converting all five attempts this season.

In the four games that the Steelers have rushed for over 100 yards (124 vs. Sea, 118 at Hou, 174 vs. Ten, 185 vs. Jac) Redman has been a key contributor. He was second on the team against the Seahawks with a career-high 49 yards on 10 carries with one touchdown while totaling a team best 40 yards on six carries against the Texans. In his first career start, Redman tied his career-high of 49 yards on 15 carries against Tennessee before leaving the game early in the fourth quarter due to leg cramps. In Week Six against Jacksonville Redman averaged 5.5 yards per carry. On the road at Arizona in Week 7 he totaled 29 yards on six carries (4.8 avg.).

INDIVIDUAL DEFENSIVE NOTES

Great First Half: LB LaMarr Woodley registered nine sacks through the first eight games this season to lead the AFC. It is the second most sacks he has recorded in the first eight games during his career (9.5, 2008). Woodley's nine sacks also mark the fourth highest total for a Steeler through eight games since sacks became an official statistic in 1982:

Rk.	Player (Year)	Sacks in Games 1-8
1.	James Harrison (2008)	10.0
1.	Keith Willis (1983)	10.0
3.	LaMarr Woodley (2008)	9.5
4.	LaMarr Woodley (2011)	9.0

Bringing The Wood: LB LaMarr Woodley has been a force defensively since he became a starter in 2008. The fifth-year linebacker leads the AFC with nine sacks this season. Including the postseason, Woodley has recorded at least half a sack 12 times in the past 15 games, totaling 15.5 sacks during the span.

Woodley recorded 1.5 sacks in Week 5 versus Tennessee and 2.0 sacks in Week 6 against Jacksonville, Week 7 at Arizona and Week 8 versus New England. It was the 16th regular season game of his career with at least 1.5 sacks. It marked the first time since sacks became an official statistic in 1982 that a Steelers' player registered at least 1.5 sacks in four consecutive regular season games. The last player in the NFL with more than one sack in four straight games was Simeon Rice in 2002 (five straight).

His sack in Week 1 at Baltimore marked the third time in the past four Kickoff Weekend games (2008, 2010, 2011) he recorded a sack.

Including the postseason, Woodley has recorded 22.0 sacks since the start of the 2010 season, tying for the third most in the NFL over that time span.

www.steelers.com

Woodley had posted at least a half-sack in 10 straight games, dating from 2009-10, and had 13.5 sacks during that span (Week 10 of 2009 through Week 2 of this year). That span of 10 straight games broke the team's all-time record of six, previously held by Greg Lloyd in 1994.

Tough To Beat: CB Ike Taylor's impact on a game can go unnoticed due to that fact that there are not many stats to explain the effect cornerbacks have on the game. Taylor is one of the top cornerbacks in the league and each week he is asked to make the opposing team's best receiver as much of a non-factor as possible.

A stat tracked by StatPass helps to gauge a cornerbacks impact beyond the amount of interceptions he has. According to StatPass a 'burn' occurs 'when a targeted defensive player allows a completed pass' and 'burns/target' is 'a ratio of the amount of times a defender is burned to the amount of times he is targeted.'

Through eight games this season Taylor has been targeted 45 times while only being burned 11, giving him a 24.4 burns/target percentage. Out of all the cornerbacks who have been targeted at least 40 times, the closest percentage to Taylor's 24.4 is Saints Jabari Greer at 39.1 (46 targets, 18 burns). Taylor has the lowest burns/targets percentage in the NFL among cornerbacks who have been targeted at least 15 times.

Player	Targets	Burned	Burns/Tgt
Ike Taylor (Pit)	45	11	24.4
Brice McCain (Hou)	19	5	26.3
Darelle Revis (NYJ)	35	11	31.4
Chris Gamble (Car)	27	9	33.3
Joe Haden (Cle)	27	10	37.0

Rising To The Occasion: In Week 8 the highly ranked New England offense came to Heinz Field looking to duplicate past success. This year the Steelers defense answered the call.

The Steelers defense forced the Patriots to go three-and-out on their first possession, marking only the second time this season New England did not score on their first drive.

Pittsburgh held the Patriots to less than 20 points for the first time since 11/7/10. It was also only the second time in the past 15 regular season games that New England was held below 30 points.

Pittsburgh held Patriots QB Tom Brady to less than 200 yards passing for the first time this season. Steelers LB LaMarr Woodley sacked Brady twice, making him the first Steelers' player to record more than one sack in four consecutive games since sacks became an official statistic in 1982.

The Steelers limited the Patriots to 43 yards rushing, New England's lowest output since being held to 22 yards rushing by Pittsburgh on 12/9/07. Dating back to 2000, three of the Patriots 10 lowest single game rushing performances have come against the Steelers:

Date	Rushing Yards	Attempts
10/30/11	43	12
12/9/07	22	9
10/31/04	5	6

Pittsburgh held the Patriots far below the season averages they accumulated in multiple categories through the first six games of the season:

Stat	vs. Pitt	Previous 6 games	Difference
Total Net Yards	213	474.5	-261.5
Net Passing Yards	170	350.5	-180.5
Net Yards Rushing	43	124.0	-81

Elite Company: LB LaMarr Woodley has registered 48.0 sacks in his first four-plus seasons with the Steelers, which ranks as the best start in franchise history and is the eighth most career sacks for a Steeler.

The following is a breakdown of sacks in the history of the club in player's first two, three, four and five seasons (Kevin Greene had 35.5 sacks in his first three seasons with the team, but he had previously played with the L.A. Rams):

Most Sacks (two consecutive seasons)

Name	Sacks	Years
James Harrison	26.0	2008-09
Jason Gildon	25.5	2000-01
LaMarr Woodley	25.0	2008-09

Most Sacks (first three seasons with team)

Name	Sacks	Years
LaMarr Woodley	29.0	2007-09
Keith Willis	20.0	1982-84

Most Sacks (first four seasons with team)

Name	Sacks	Years
LaMarr Woodley	39.0	2007-10
Joey Porter	30.5	1999-02
Chad Brown	30.0	1993-96

Most Sacks (first five seasons with team)

Name	Sacks	Years
LaMarr Woodley	48.0	2007-11
Keith Willis	37.5	1982-86
Joey Porter	35.5	1999-03

Power Of The Beard: Over the past three weeks, DE Brett Keisel has elevated his game to help lead an injury-plagued defensive unit. With multiple starters missing, the 10th-year pro has recorded three of the best games of his career.

Against New England in Week 8, Keisel closed the game with a sack and forced fumble on QB Tom Brady. The fumble rolled all the way through the end zone for the Steelers' second safety in as many weeks. The previous week Keisel led the Steelers with five QB pressures at Arizona. In Week 6 versus Jacksonville, Keisel tied a career-high with two sacks for a loss of 16 yards, the fourth multi-sack game of his career and first since 11/9/09 vs. Denver (2.0). He also registered five tackles, four QB pressures and one pass breakup against the Jaguars.

Despite missing two games due to injury, Keisel leads the Steelers with 20 QB pressures this season.

Stepping Up: Over the past four weeks the Steelers had to deal with injury issues. Starting defenders LB James Harrison, NT Casey Hampton, DE Aaron Smith and LB James Farrior have all missed time due to injury, leaving the Steelers with holes to fill.

LB Lawrence Timmons slid from his normal position inside to fill in on the outside for Harrison. LB Larry Foote moved into Timmons starting ILB spot, making his first starts since 12/20/09 as a member of the Detroit Lions. DE Ziggy Hood, who started Weeks 3 and 4 for DE Brett Keisel, moved to the other side to fill in for Smith over the last four weeks and is second on the team with 16 QB pressures this season. Hood was familiar with his spot after starting 10 games in place of Smith in 2010. In the center of the defense NT Chris Hoke took the place of Hampton over center for two weeks and the Steelers improved to 17-1 when Hoke starts. NT Steve McClendon and LB Stevenson Sylvester both made their first career starts over the past two weeks. Rookie DE Cameron Heyward has seen increased playing time in a reserve roll and registered his first career sack, taking down QB Matt Hasselbeck for an eight-yard loss on third-and-one in the fourth quarter in Week 5.

It wasn't just the new starters that stepped up to fill in for missing starters, fellow starters and reserves also increased their level of play to make up for the missing personnel.

LB LaMarr Woodley has put together four of the best games of 2011, recording 7.5 sacks, two QB hits, one pass defended and one interception in the past four games. It marked the first time since 1982 when sacks became an official statistic that a Steelers' player registered at least 1.5 sacks in four straight games.

S Ryan Clark recorded his first interception of 2011, after LB James Farrior tipped a pass by Arizona QB Kevin Kolb on the first drive of the game, giving the Steelers the ball on the Arizona 31-yard. Pittsburgh offense capitalized with a touchdown to take a 7-0 lead. Clark also led the team in tackles in each of the past two weeks: seven at Arizona and eight versus New England.

All helped the Steelers limit some highly regarded offensive players to low numbers. Pittsburgh limited Titans RB Chris Johnson to 51 yards on 14 attempts and one touchdown. In Week 6 they held the Jaguars to 76 net passing yards, the fourth-lowest out for an opposing offense during the Mike Tomlin era (2007-present). In Weeks 7 and 8 the Steelers allowed a combined 116 rushing yards.

Man Of Troy: SS Troy Polamalu has continued to make plays during the 2011 season. In Week 6 against Jacksonville, Polamalu stopped RB Maurice Jones-Drew for no gain on third-and-one in the fourth quarter, forcing the Jaguars to punt. In Week 4 versus Houston he led the Steelers with 10 tackles. In Week 3 at Indianapolis Polamalu returned a fumble 16 yards for a touchdown in the fourth quarter. In Week 2 he registered his first sack of 2011 and the ninth of his career versus Seattle.

Polamalu ranks fifth in Steelers' history among safeties in sacks. He is one shy of passing Chris Oldham (9.5) for fourth place in franchise history for the most sacks among safeties.

In 2010, Polamalu made the "splash" plays that put him among the elite in the NFL. For his efforts, Polamalu was named 2010 NFL Defensive Player of the Year.

Polamalu, now has 27 career interceptions, the most of any active Steeler. The team is 22-3 when Polamalu has an interception.

Since 2008, Polamalu is tied for second among NFL safeties in interceptions (17):

Player	Team	INT
Ed Reed	Baltimore	22
Troy Polamalu	Pittsburgh	17
Nick Collins	Green Bay	17
Michael Griffin	Tennessee	13
Brandon Merriweather	New England/Chicago	12

All Good In The Hood: DE Ziggy Hood, the team's No. 1 draft pick in 2009, started the final 10 games of 2010 in place of injured DE Aaron Smith and has filled at both defensive end positions over the past six weeks.

In each of the past three games, Hood accounted for two QB pressures, helping the Steelers defense register 10 total sacks in three weeks. In Week 5 versus Tennessee Hood tied a career-high with four QB pressures (11/21/10 vs. Oak). Through six games in 2011, Hood has 16 tackles, a half a sack and is second on the team with 16 QB pressures.

He finished last season with 20 tackles and three sacks, which tied for the team-lead among defensive linemen (Keisel). He also led the defensive line unit with 18 QB pressures in 2010.

Back To Starting: CB William Gay has started the past seven games for the Steelers. Including the 2010 postseason, Gay has started nine of the past 10 games. During the 2010 regular season Gay started one of 16 games played. This came after a 2009 season where he started 14 games.

In 2011, Gay has been a starting member of a pass defense that has yet to allow over 260 net passing yards in one game. Overall the Steelers rank first in the NFL, giving up an average of 171.9 net passing yards per game. In Week 6, Gay was part of a pass defense that held the Jaguars to 76 net passing yards, including only 10 in the first half. On the season, Gay has four passes defensed and 27 tackles.

Outside Presence: LB James Harrison forced a fumble on a fourth-quarter sack of Colts QB Curtis Painter that SS Troy Polamalu returned 16 yards for a touchdown to give Pittsburgh a 20-13 lead during a Week 3 victory over Indianapolis.

It marked the 25th forced fumble of his career. Harrison ranks second in team history for career forced fumbles, behind only Greg Lloyd. The following is a list of the top seven career forced fumble leaders for the Steelers since 1987:

Rk.	Name	# of FF
1.	Greg Lloyd	36
2.	James Harrison	25
3.	Jason Gildon	18
4.	Rod Woodson	17
5.	Joey Porter	16
	Carnell Lake	16
7.	James Farrior	14
	Levon Kirkland	14

In 2010, Harrison had a team-best six forced fumbles. The following is a list of the top five single-season forced fumbles leaders for the Steelers since 1992:

Rk.	Name (Year)	# of FF
1.	James Harrison (2008)	7
	Greg Lloyd (1994)	7
3.	James Harrison (2010)	6
	James Harrison (2007)	6
	Greg Lloyd (1995)	6

Harrison In Charge: LB James Harrison, the 2008 NFL Defensive Player of the Year, has been a terror on opposing quarterbacks since he became the starting outside linebacker for the Steelers in 2007. One of the only things that has been able to stop him are injuries, as a hurt eye has kept him sidelined for the past four games.

Harrison recorded 51st career sack and forced a fumble that led to a touchdown in Week 3 at Indianapolis. He now has the seventh-most sacks in team history. The Steelers are 26-11 when he posts a sack. He needs three sacks to pass Greg Lloyd (53.5) for the sixth-highest career total in franchise history.

Harrison, who earned his fourth straight selection to the Pro Bowl last season, led the team with 10.5 sacks in 2010. He also had 100 tackles, six forced fumbles and two interceptions.

Sack Attack: LB James Harrison had a team-high 10.5 sacks in 2010 after posting 10 in 2009.

Harrison had a career-high 16 sacks in 2008, breaking the team record for sacks in a season. Mike Merriweather previously held the record since 1984.

The following is a list of the top five single-season sack leaders in team history:

Rk.	Name (Year)	# of Sacks
1.	James Harrison (2008)	16
2.	Mike Merriweather (1984)	15
3.	Kevin Greene (1994)	14
	Keith Willis (1983)	14
5.	LaMarr Woodley (2009)	13.5
	Jason Gildon (2000)	13.5

Double Trouble: The Steelers have a tradition of fielding some of the best pass-rushing linebackers in the NFL, and current linebackers James Harrison and LaMarr Woodley have accounted for two of the top four sack totals by a Steelers' duo in team history.

Through seven games in 2011, the two have combined for 11.0 sacks: Harrison (2.0) and Woodley (9.0) even though Harrison has missed the last four games due to injury.

In 2010, Harrison (10.5) and Woodley (10) combined for 20.5 sacks. They totaled 23.5 sacks between them (Woodley 13.5, Harrison, 10) in 2009.

In 2008, Harrison and Woodley broke the team's top sack duo record (since 1982) by combining for 27.5 sacks. The 27.5 sacks by Harrison (16) and Woodley (11.5) broke the record (24) previously held by Jason Gildon (13.5) and Joey Porter (10.5) in 2000 and Kevin Greene (14) and Greg Lloyd (10) in 1994.

The following is a list of the Steelers' top sack duos since 1982, when sacks became an official NFL statistic:

Steelers Top Sack Duos (Since 1982)

Year	Players (Ind. sacks)	Total Sacks
2008	James Harrison (16*) LaMarr Woodley (11.5)	27.5*
2000	Jason Gildon (13.5) Joey Porter (10.5)	24
1994	Kevin Greene (14) Greg Lloyd (10)	24
2009	LaMarr Woodley (13.5) James Harrison (10)	23.5
1984	Mike Merriweather (15) Edmund Nelson (7)	22

* Steelers Record

Double-Digit Duty: LB James Harrison became the first player in team history to post at least 10 sacks in three straight seasons as he had a team-best 10.5 in 2010.

Harrison posted 10 in 2009 and a career-best (team record) 16 in 2008.

Additionally, LB LaMarr Woodley became just the second player in team history to post at least 10 sacks in three straight years as he finished with 10 in 2010. Woodley recorded 13.5 in 2009 and 11.5 in 2008.

INDIVIDUAL SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

Return Success: WR Antonio Brown started the 2011 season by performing well in the return game. He ranks fourth in the AFC in punt returns (12.1 avg.) and fifth in the NFL kickoff returns (28.9 avg.).

On punt returns, he registered a career-long 41-yard return in Week 2 versus Seattle it marked the longest punt return by a Steeler since 11/5/07 (49 yards, Allen Rossum, vs. Baltimore). He followed it up with the second and third longest punt returns of his career over the next two weeks, 37 yards at Indianapolis and 33 yards at Houston. In Week 7 at Arizona, Brown averaged 23.5 yards on two punt returns, including a long of 31 yards.

Brown has also performed well on kick returns. Against Tennessee in Week 5, he registered the second longest kick return of his career (89-yard TD, 9/12/10 vs. Atl), a 52-yarder to the 50-yard line. In Week 1 against the Baltimore Ravens he returned three kickoffs for a total of 103 yards (31, 41 and 31 yards).

He's Back: P Daniel Sepulveda, who missed the final four regular-season games in 2010 with an ACL injury, has had a solid first eight games this season.

In Week 5 versus Tennessee, Sepulveda completed the second pass attempt of his career when he found S Ryan Mundy for a 33-yard gain on a fake punt, converting a fourth-and-five down to the Tennessee 17-yard line. The drive resulted in a touchdown that gave Pittsburgh a 14-3 lead. It was Sepulveda's second career pass attempt (32-yard pass to Najeh Davenport, at St. Louis, 12/20/07).

When Sepulveda has punted he has done quite well. He surpassed his career-long twice in the first two weeks of the season. In Week 4 at Houston, Sepulveda averaged 50.5 yards on four punts (202 total yards) with a net average of 46.3 and a long of 58 yards. It marked his eighth career game when he averaged over 50 yards per punt, including the third this season.

Oh So Suisham: Connected on a 38-yard field with four seconds left in the fourth quarter to give Pittsburgh a 23-20 victory over Indianapolis in Week 3. It marked the fourth game-winning field goal of his career and second as a member of the Steelers.

Preseason Game #1 Washington 16, Pittsburgh 7 Aug. 12, 2011 FedEx Field (68,320)

LANDOVER, Md. – For the first time since 2006, the Steelers lost their preseason opener, falling to the Washington Redskins, 16-7, at FedEx Field. The Steelers fell to 4-9 in the preseason when facing the Redskins on the road.

Neither team scored in the first quarter, but the Redskins had an opportunity on their opening drive of the game but K Shayne Graham missed a 29-yard field goal. Midway through the second quarter, QB Rex Grossman found WR Santana Moss for an eight-yard touchdown to give the Redskins a 7-0 lead. Grossman finished with a game-high 207 yards passing and one touchdown. Moss finished with a game-high seven receptions for 64 yards and one touchdown.

The Steelers answered Washington on their next possession. RB Isaac Redman broke free for a 22-yard touchdown run to tie the game, 7-7. Redman finished the game with five carries for 42 yards and one touchdown. But it would be the last points the Steelers would score. Prior to halftime, Graham missed another field goal, this time from 49 yards, and the teams went into halftime tied 7-7.

The Steelers only managed to gain 57 yards of offense in the second half, and only drove the ball into Redskins' territory once. The Redskins moved the ball well in the second half. Rookie RBs Evan Royster and Roy Helu combined for 88 rushing yards, while QB Kellen Clemens added 105 passing yards. K Graham Gano made three second-half field goals, from 32, 34 and 45 yards out, to seal the victory for the Redskins.

The Redskins gained 452 total yards of offense (312 passing, 140 rushing) to the Steelers' 186 yards of total offense (103 passing, 83 rushing). Washington's offense had 27 first downs, while the Steelers only had 12. The Redskins' defense added three sacks, while the Steelers' defense had zero. Washington also dominated the time of possession, holding the football for almost 20 minutes more than Pittsburgh.

The majority of the Steelers' starters only played one or two series, while the Redskins' starters played the entirety of the first half. Despite accounts that the preseason games would consist of sloppy play, there were only five total penalties in the game and neither team had a turnover.

Preseason Game #2
Pittsburgh 24, Philadelphia 14
Aug. 18, 2011
Heinz Field (55,189)

PITTSBURGH – The Steelers' offense scored three touchdowns in the first half, cruising to a 24-14 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles at Heinz Field. With the win, the Steelers improved to 11-4 all-time against the Eagles at home in the preseason.

Less than a week after the Steelers' first-team offense failed to score a touchdown, they erupted for three first-half scores. QB Ben Roethlisberger found WR Antonio Brown for a 29-yard touchdown midway through the first quarter to put the Steelers up 7-0. Roethlisberger then found WR Hines Ward for a 20-yard touchdown early in the second quarter to give the Steelers a 14-0 lead. Roethlisberger finished the game 8-of-12 for 125 yards and two touchdowns.

On the Eagles next drive S Ryan Clark picked off QB Michael Vick, the first of five forced turnovers by the Steelers on the night. On the following Eagles drive, CB Keenan Lewis picked off Vick. And prior to halftime, S Troy Polamalu picked off Vick to set the Steelers up in Eagles' territory. With only 19 seconds left in the half QB Byron Leftwich found newly acquired WR Jerricho Cotchery for a 20-yard score and the Steelers went into halftime with a 21-0 lead. Leftwich completed 4-of-7 passes for 67 yards and one touchdown.

QB Vince Young came in for the Eagles in the third quarter and he was picked off by LB Larry Foote. Early in the fourth quarter, RB Dion Lewis was stripped by S Will Allen, the fifth turnover of the night for the Eagles.

K Swayze Waters added a 30-yard field goal in the fourth quarter to put the Steelers up 24-0. The Eagles would score twice late in the fourth quarter. WR Gerald Jones had two touchdown receptions of 14 and seven yards from QB Mike Kafka. Kafka finished with a game-high 160 yards passing.

The Steelers offense had 403 total yards of total offense (259 passing 144 rushing) and zero turnovers. RB Jonathan Dwyer had a game-high 44 yards rushing. The Steelers defense forced five turnovers (4 interceptions, 1 fumble). Also, 15 different Steelers caught at least one pass.

Preseason Game #3
Pittsburgh 34, Atlanta 16
Aug. 27, 2011
Heinz Field (56,754)

PITTSBURGH – QB Ben Roethlisberger and WR Antonio Brown combined for two long touchdowns (77, 44) in the first half, and the Steelers cruised to a 34-16 victory against the Atlanta Falcons at Heinz Field. Pittsburgh is now 7-0 all time versus the Falcons in the preseason.

The Steelers wasted no time getting on the board, scoring only a minute and a half into the game. Brown took the opening kickoff back 51 yards and three plays later RB Rashard Mendenhall scored on a one-yard TD run. LB Lawrence Timmons' interception of QB Matt Ryan set up the Steelers second score, a Shaun Suisham 19-yard field goal, and the Steelers led 10-0.

The Falcons tied the game 10-10 on a field goal by K Matt Bryant and a 10-yard touchdown pass from Ryan to WR Roddy White. But the Steelers' offense kept rolling. Roethlisberger found Brown in the middle of the field for a 77-yard touchdown midway through the second quarter. With less than two minutes left in the half, Brown grabbed a 44-yard touchdown pass from Roethlisberger. Brown finished with a game-high 137 receiving yards and a game-high two touchdowns, while adding 109 kickoff return yards. Roethlisberger finished with 214 yards passing on just 11 completions and two touchdowns.

Bryant added a 46-yard field goal prior to halftime to cut the lead to 24-16. Neither team scored in the third quarter, but seconds into the fourth quarter, CB Crezdon Butler stepped in front of QB Chris Redman's pass and took it 95 yards for a touchdown to give the Steelers a 31-16 lead. Butler also added a game-high nine tackles. K Swayze Waters added a 27-yard field goal late in the game to seal the victory.

The Steelers offense had 320 total yards (224 passing, 96 rushing), and for the third consecutive game Pittsburgh's offense did not commit a turnover. The Steelers had a preseason-high in kickoff return yards (124) and interception return yards (139). RB Jonathan Dwyer led the team in rushing (36 yards) for the second consecutive game.

Preseason Game #4
Pittsburgh 33, Carolina 17
Sept. 1, 2011
Bank of America Stadium (72,358)

CHARLOTTE – For the second consecutive year, the Steelers finished their preseason schedule in familiar fashion, beating the Carolina Panthers. With the 33-17 victory at Bank of America Stadium, the Steelers improved to 8-4 all time when facing the Panthers in the preseason.

The Steelers struck first for the third consecutive game, this time with a little luck. WR Mike Wallace caught the ball at the one-yard line, but he was stripped by CB Chris Gamble and the football rolled into the end zone. TE David Johnson fell on the loose ball and the Steelers took a 7-0 lead. The Panthers scored only three minutes later when rookie QB Cam Newton found TE Jeremy Shockey for a 10-yard touchdown to tie the game 7-7.

The Steelers went up 14-7 midway through the second quarter on RB Jonathan Dwyer's 50-yard touchdown run. Dwyer finished the night with a game-high 88 yards rushing on 13 carries. It was the third straight game that he led the Steelers in rushing. Dwyer finished the preseason with a team-leading 175 yards on the ground.

The Panthers though struck quickly on their ensuing drive. QB Derek Anderson found WR David Clowney for a 41-yard touchdown pass to tie the game 14-14. The Steelers would take a 20-14 halftime lead on K Shaun Suisham's two field goals. Suisham connected on field goals from 52 and 31 yards.

The Panthers got within three points on K Adi Kunalic's 20-yard field goal early in the third quarter, but it's the closest the Panthers would get the rest of the game. K Swayze Waters added two field goals, a 22-yarder late in the third quarter and a 53-yarder early in the fourth to put the Steelers up 26-17. QB Dennis Dixon found rookie TE Weslye Saunders for a 15-yard touchdown pass to seal the 33-17 victory for the Steelers. Dixon finished the game 11-of-22 for 157 yards and one touchdown.

The Steelers offense racked up 362 total yards, including a preseason-high 154 yards rushing. The Steelers offense did not commit a turnover for the entire preseason. The defense had a preseason-high four sacks and forced two turnovers. NT Steve McLendon had one sack, giving him a team-high two for the preseason.

Game #1

Baltimore 35, Pittsburgh 7
Sept. 11, 2011
M&T Bank Stadium (71,434)

BALTIMORE – The Steelers dropped their season opener for the first time since 2002, losing to the Baltimore Ravens at M&T Bank Stadium, 35-7. It was the largest margin of victory for the Ravens in the series history, thanks in large part to seven Steelers' turnovers.

It only took three plays for the Ravens to score their first touchdown. RB Ray Rice took the opening snap and rushed for 36 yards. Two plays later QB Joe Flacco found WR Anquan Boldin for a 27-yard touchdown and the Ravens led 7-0.

The Steelers first turnover came late in the first quarter when LB Terrell Suggs sacked and stripped the ball from QB Ben Roethlisberger. Suggs finished with a game-high three sacks. Rice then ran it in from one-yard out to put the Ravens up 14-0. The Steelers responded on their ensuing drive. Roethlisberger found WR Emmanuel Sanders for an 11-yard touchdown to cut the lead 14-7. But it would be the last points the Steelers would score.

Flacco and Rice hooked up for an 11-yard touchdown prior to halftime and the Steelers found themselves in a 14-point hole. On the Steelers' first play of the second half, Ravens' NT Haloti Ngata broke free and stripped the football from RB Rashard Mendenhall, setting the Ravens up at the Steelers' 16-yard line. On the very next play, Flacco found TE Ed Dickson for an 18-yard touchdown. Flacco finished the game 17-of-29 for 224 yards with three touchdowns and zero interceptions.

On the Steelers' very next offensive play, Roethlisberger was picked off by LB Ray Lewis. And on the Steelers ensuing drive, it looked as if they would find a way into the endzone, but Roethlisberger was intercepted by S Ed Reed. After Reed's interception, the Ravens marched right down the field and K Billy Cundiff connected on a 29-yard field goal.

Reed picked off Roethlisberger again in the fourth quarter, and the Steelers' RB Mewelde Moore was stripped by Lewis midway through the fourth quarter for the Steelers' seventh turnover. Cundiff connected from 30 yards out before the two-minute warning to give the Ravens the 35-7 victory.

Despite the turnovers, Roethlisberger finished with a game-high 280 yards passing. WR Mike Wallace also posted his ninth career 100-yard receiving game and fourth consecutive 100-yard game in the regular season. Wallace tied a career-high with eight receptions. LB LaMarr Woodley posted his 40th career sack, which tied him for 10th on the team's all-time list.

Game #2
Pittsburgh 24, Seattle 0
Sept. 18, 2011
Heinz Field (63,663)

PITTSBURGH – The Steelers won their ninth straight home opener, shutting out the Seattle Seahawks 24-0 at Heinz Field. This was the team's first shutout since the 2008 season and the second-consecutive time the Seahawks have been shut out at Heinz Field.

On the Steelers' opening drive, QB Ben Roethlisberger led the team to the Seattle one-yard line but the Seahawks held the Steelers on fourth-and-goal. The Steelers responded on their next drive when RB Rashard Mendenhall scored from one-yard out to put the Steelers up 7-0. Mendenhall finished with a game-high 66 yards rushing and one touchdown.

The Steelers went up 14-0 in the second quarter when RB Isaac Redman scored on a 20-yard touchdown run. It was Redman's first career rushing touchdown. He finished the game with 49 yards rushing and one touchdown. Steelers' K Shaun Suisham added a 20-yard field goal late in the first half and the Steelers took a 17-0 lead into halftime.

The Steelers scored their final points when Roethlisberger found WR Mike Wallace for a two-yard touchdown pass late in the third quarter. Wallace tied a career-high with eight receptions for 126 yards and one touchdown. The 126 receiving yards were the second-highest total of his career. Wallace also surpassed 100+ yards receiving for the fifth consecutive regular-season game.

The Steelers defense did not budge against Seattle, only letting up 164 total yards (133 passing, 31 rushing). The 164 yards allowed are the third-lowest total since the start of the 2008 season. The defense added five sacks. NT Steve McLendon recorded his first career half-sack and LB James Harrison became just the seventh player in team history to reach 50 sacks with his sack of QB Tarvaris Jackson.

With the victory, Roethlisberger won his 70th game as a starting quarterback. Roethlisberger is now 5-0 in home openers.

Game #3
Pittsburgh 23, Indianapolis 20
Sept. 25, 2011
Lucas Oil Stadium (66,309)

INDIANAPOLIS – K Shaun Suisham nailed a 38-yard field goal with only four seconds left in the game to lift the Steelers to a 23-20 victory against the Indianapolis Colts at Lucas Oil Stadium. With the victory, the Steelers improved to 2-1 on the season. It marked the first victory for the Steelers in Indianapolis during the regular season since 1991.

The Steelers took the opening kickoff and went up 3-0 on Suisham's 48-yard field goal. Late in the first quarter, the Steelers took a 10-0 lead when QB Ben Roethlisberger found WR Mike Wallace for an 81-yard touchdown, the longest reception in Wallace's career. Wallace finished the game with a career-high 144 yards receiving and one touchdown, extending his franchise record to six consecutive 100-yard receiving games.

The Colts scored 13 unanswered points, thanks in large part to three Steelers' turnovers. A Roethlisberger fumble set up K Adam Vinatieri's 21-yard field goal to cut the lead 10-3. And with less than two minutes remaining in the half, Roethlisberger was sacked and stripped and Colts' DE Jamaal Anderson scooped the ball up and returned it 47 yards for a touchdown. On the Steelers' ensuing drive, Roethlisberger was picked off and Vinatieri connected from 25 yards out to give the Colts a 13-10 lead at halftime.

The Steelers tied the game 13-13 early in the fourth quarter on Suisham's 44-yard field goal. Midway through the fourth quarter the Steelers' defense forced its first turnover of the season on LB James Harrison's sack and forced fumble. S Troy Polamalu picked up the loose ball and returned it 16 yards to give the Steelers a 20-13 lead.

The Colts though struck on their next drive. RB Joseph Addai scored from six yards out to tie the game 20-20. But there was plenty of time for the Steelers to score. Roethlisberger led the team on a 10-play, 60-yard drive that was capped off by Suisham's game-winning field goal. It was Roethlisberger's 24th game-winning/overtime drive of his career. Roethlisberger finished with a game-high 364 yards passing with one touchdown.

Game #4

Houston 17, Pittsburgh 10
Oct. 2, 2011
Reliant Stadium (71,585)

HOUSTON – RB Arian Foster scored on a 42-yard run midway through the fourth quarter to score the final points of a 17-10 victory for the Houston Texans over the Steelers at Reliant Stadium. With the loss, the Steelers fell to 2-2 on the season.

The Texans scored on their first possession as QB Matt Schaub led the team on a 19-play, 95-yard drive that was capped off by a one-yard touchdown toss to TE Owen Daniels.

K Neil Rackers added a 25-yard field goal late in the second quarter to give the Texans a 10-0 lead. The Steelers finally had some momentum on their final drive of the half. K Shaun Suisham attempted a 30-yard field goal, but it was blocked by S Danieal Manning. CB Johnathan Joseph then scooped up the loose football and returned 61 yards for a touchdown but the play was negated on a block in the back penalty. The Steelers trailed 10-0 at the half.

On the Steelers' first possession of the second half QB Ben Roethlisberger led the team on a 13-play, 74-yard drive that was capped by RB Rashard Mendenhall's three-yard touchdown run. The Steelers then tied the game, 10-10, when Suisham connected from 26 yards to begin the fourth quarter.

On the Texans' ensuing possession, Foster broke free and scored from 42 yards out. It was the longest run the Steelers' defense had given up since the 2006 season. Foster finished the game with 30 carries for 155 yards and one touchdown. The Steelers though had a chance to tie the game with less than a minute left, but Roethlisberger was picked off by CB Jason Allen.

The Texans rushed for 180 yards, which is the second-most rushing yards the Steelers' defense allowed in a game since the 2001 season. Foster's 155 rushing yards were the second-most by a running back against the Steelers' defense since 2001.

WR Hines Ward had one reception for 19 yards, giving him 11,838 career receiving yards, which puts him in 20th place in NFL History for receiving yards.

Game #5

Pittsburgh 38, Tennessee 17
Oct. 9, 2011
Heinz Field (63,875)

PITTSBURGH – QB Ben Roethlisberger threw for five touchdowns and RB Jonathan Dwyer ran for 107 yards, propelling the Steelers to a 38-17 victory over the Tennessee Titans at Heinz Field.

The Titans scored on their first possession of the game, marching 69 yards on 13 plays. K Rob Bironas connected from 29 yards out to put the Titans up 3-0.

The Steelers scored touchdowns on their first three possessions of the game. Roethlisberger found TE Heath Miller for an eight-yard touchdown pass to take a 7-3 lead. On the Steelers ensuing drive, Dwyer, on his first play of the season, raced down the sideline for a 76-yard run. It was the longest run of his career and it tied for the seventh longest run from scrimmage in Steelers' history. Later in the drive, Roethlisberger found WR Hines Ward for a seven-yard touchdown, and the Steelers led 14-3.

Roethlisberger threw his third touchdown of the day midway through the second quarter, finding TE David Johnson for a one-yard score. It was Johnson's first career touchdown, and the Steelers went into halftime up 21-3. The Steelers went up 28-3 when Roethlisberger connected with Ward on a five-yard touchdown pass. It was Ward's first multi-touchdown game of the season and 16th of his career. Ward finished with a game-high seven catches for 54 yards and two touchdowns.

The Titans cut the lead 28-10 on RB Chris Johnson's one-yard touchdown run but the Steelers answered. K Shaun Suisham extended the lead to 31-10 with a 19-yard field goal. Late in the fourth quarter the Titans cut the lead 31-17, when QB Matt Hasselbeck connected with WR Damian Williams on a 19-yard touchdown.

Roethlisberger threw his fifth touchdown pass of the game on the Steelers' next drive, finding WR Mike Wallace for a 40-yard score. It marked the second time in his career that he threw five touchdowns. Roethlisberger finished the game 24-of-34 for 228 yards with five touchdowns and one interception.

The Steelers' offense gained a season-high 431 total yards, including a season-high 174 yards rushing. The Steelers' defense held the Titans to 66 yards rushing, and had three sacks and one interception.

Game #6
Pittsburgh 17, Jacksonville 13
Oct. 16, 2011
Heinz Field (62,934)

PITTSBURGH – RB Rashard Mendenhall returned to action after missing the previous week with a hamstring injury, and rushed for a season-high 146 yards, leading the Steelers to a 17-13 victory over the Jacksonville Jaguars at Heinz Field. With the win, the Steelers improved to 4-2 on the season, including a 3-1 record against the AFC South.

The Steelers wasted no time, scoring on their opening drive of the game. QB Ben Roethlisberger led the team on a 10-play, 87-yard drive, that was capped off by Mendenhall's eight-yard touchdown run. The Steelers scored again on their next drive, when Roethlisberger found WR Mike Wallace for a 28-yard touchdown. Wallace finished with a game-high 76 yards on two receptions, including a long of 48 yards. It marked the fifth straight game Wallace had a reception of 40+ yards.

K Shaun Suisham connected on a 21-yard field goal to give the Steelers a 17-0 lead. For the second consecutive game, the Steelers scored on their first three drives of the game. The Steelers' defense dominated the first half, holding the Jaguars to 68 total yards, while sacking QB Blaine Gabbert four times. The Jaguars found a way to score, when K Josh Scobee connected from 46 yards out, and the Steelers went into halftime with a 17-3 lead.

The Steelers offense failed to score in the second half, which allowed the Jaguars to chip away at the lead. Late in the third quarter, Gabbert found WR Jason Hill for an 18-yard touchdown to cut the lead to 17-10. Late in the fourth quarter, Scobee connected from 45 yards out to cut the lead to 17-13. The Jaguars had a chance to win the game on their final drive, but Gabbert's hail-mary attempt was knocked down by Steelers' defenders.

The Steelers offense totaled 370 yards, including a season-high 185 yards on the ground. The Steelers' defense held the Jaguars to 209 total yards, including 76 net passing yards. The Steelers defense also had five sacks, including a pair from both LB LaMarr Woodley and DE Brett Keisel.

Game #7
Pittsburgh 32, Arizona 20
Oct. 23, 2011
University of Phoenix Stadium (62,475)

GLENDAL, Ariz. – The Steelers won their third consecutive game, defeating the Arizona Cardinals 32-20 at the University of Phoenix Stadium. With the win, the Steelers improved to 5-2 on the season, including 2-0 against the NFC West.

The Steelers scored a touchdown on their first possession for the third straight game after S Ryan Clark intercepted QB Kevin Kolb off a tipped pass to set the Steelers up at the Cardinals 31-yard line. Five plays later, QB Ben Roethlisberger found TE Heath Miller for a 12-yard score, and the Steelers led 7-0.

Midway through the second quarter, Roethlisberger and WR Mike Wallace connected on a 95-yard touchdown reception. It was the longest pass play in Steelers' history and second-longest play from scrimmage in team history. Wallace has now recorded one reception of at least 40 yards in six consecutive games, which is the longest streak in the NFL since Isaac Bruce in 2000. Wallace finished with a game-high 118 yards receiving and one touchdown.

With the Steelers up 14-0, the Cardinals answered with a 13-play 80-yard drive that was capped off by a one-yard run by RB Alfonso Smith to cut the lead 14-7. The Steelers went into halftime with a 17-7 lead when K Shaun Suisham connected on a 41-yard field goal as time expired.

The Cardinals cut the lead 17-14 when Kolb found RB LaRod Stephens-Howling for a 73-yard touchdown. But the Steelers put the game out of reach on their next three drives. Roethlisberger found WR Emmanuel Sanders for a four-yard touchdown to put the Steelers up 24-14. Then the Steelers registered a safety, their first since the 2008 season. LB LaMarr Woodley pressured Kolb in the end zone and Kolb was flagged for intentional grounding.

Suisham added two field goals in the fourth quarter (42, 39) to give the Steelers a 32-14 lead. The Cardinals added one score late in the fourth quarter.

Roethlisberger finished the game 26-of-39 for 361 yards with three touchdowns and zero interceptions, guiding the Steelers' offense to a season-high 445 total yards. Woodley added two sacks, marking the second time in his career that he's had three consecutive multi-sack games.

Game #8
Pittsburgh 25, New England 17
Oct. 30, 2011
Heinz Field (64,424)

PITTSBURGH – The Steelers won their fourth straight contest, defeating the New England Patriots 25-17 at Heinz Field. With the win, the Steelers improved to 6-2 on the season.

The Steelers scored a touchdown on their opening drive for the fourth straight game as they drove 68 yards on 11 plays. QB Ben Roethlisberger found RB Mewelde Moore for a five-yard touchdown to give the Steelers a 7-0 lead. Roethlisberger finished the game with a season-high 365 passing yards and two touchdowns.

The Steelers increased their lead to 10-0 when K Shaun Suisham connected on a 33-yard field goal. Roethlisberger looked poised to add to the lead but he was picked off by LB Gary Guyton. Guyton's interception set the Patriots up at the Steelers eight-yard line. Two plays later QB Tom Brady found WR Deion Branch for a two-yard touchdown to cut the lead 10-7.

Roethlisberger answered on the ensuing drive, finding WR Antonio Brown for a seven-yard touchdown to give the Steelers a 17-7 lead. Patriots K Stephen Gostkowski added a 46-yard field goal prior to halftime to cut the lead 17-10.

The Steelers offense continued to control the clock after halftime. Suisham added two field goals (21, 23) to give the Steelers a 23-10 lead. The Patriots made the last few minutes of the fourth quarter very interesting. Brady found TE Aaron Hernandez for a one-yard score to cut the lead to 23-17. The Patriots onside kick attempt failed but the Steelers were unable to run out the clock. That left Brady with less than 30 seconds to work.

The Steelers defense sealed the win when DE Brett Keisel sacked Brady and forced a fumble. The ball rolled through the end zone and out of bounds for a safety. LB LaMarr Woodley added two sacks, becoming the first player in team history to register at least 1.5 sacks in four consecutive regular-season games. The Steelers defense held the Patriots to season-lows in total net yards (213), passing yards (198) and points (17).

The Steelers offense totaled 427 total yards (329 passing and 98 rushing), while controlling the football for almost 40 minutes.
